

Theology Threads | Episode 1 Notes | Who Cares What I Believe?

Summary

In this episode of Theology Threads, Dr. Brian Jenkins and Pastor Miles Langrock discuss the nature of belief and why it matters what we believe. They discuss what it means to believe in Christ, why its important to know what you believe, how to take an inventory of what you believe, and how your beliefs impact every part of your life. In the upcoming episodes, Brian and Miles will lay our the foundations of the Christian belief system, so make sure to continue with Season 1 of Theology Threads! You can email us with questions at hello@theothreads.com

Reflection Questions

Do you often think about your worldview? Do you think you are aware of how it informs what you think about things?

Use the belief inventory to spend time thinking through your worldview. Do your answers resonate with you? Do you want to explore why you believe something more? You can view the Belief Inventory here https://www.instagram.com/p/C3waZvvLLcv/?img_index=5 .

Does the Christian worldview resonate with you? Are there things you still have questions about in regards to what the Christian worldview is?

If you could share one point from episode 1 with someone, what would it be and who would you share it with?

