Reflection Questions

This passage starts with a wacky situation the Corinthian church is dealing with. What are some strange or even seeming silly stories you have encountered in the Bible you'd like to better understand?

Take a moment and reflect about your attitude to sin. Do you feel like you are above it? Do you feel like you are devastated by it? Are there rules you think don't apply to you like gossip, or anger?

What's one way you wish Christians could better represent Christ?

If you could share one point from this episode with someone, what would it be and who would you share it with?
